

WHAT SHOULD EACH INDIVIDUAL MEMBER DO TO BUILD ODDFELLOWSHIP:

- Visit the sick, bury the dead, relieve the distressed, and educate the orphan.
- Attend all meeting and functions of your lodge.
- Seek, and secure a sound Knowledge of Odd Fellowship.
- Fulfill the duties, and master the ritualistic work required in each office held.
- Widen our potential fraternal value be constantly asking others to join us.
- To be interested in the projects of the lodge, Grand Lodge, and the Sovereign Grand Lodge.
- Dress for Lodge neat and comfortably.
- Confidently and thoroughly instruct new members in the customs of the order and your Lodge.
- Patiently listen to the ideas of others.
- Faithfully stay available to your Lodge.
- Graciously ask questions.
- Visit other lodges and encourage others to do the same to spread fellowship.
- Join other branches of the Order.
- Be an Active and valuable member.
- Attend your Grand Lodge sessions and take part in committee work if asked.
- Attend degree practices, become proficient in your part.
- Insist the communications be read in full, become educated in the projects of the order.
- Actively serve on lodge committees and assist where you can.

These ideas come from a variety of conversations from a number of brothers and sisters from many jurisdictions. While they may not be official they can surely help.